FILMING CONSENT FORMS

Teachers from Billesley Primary School have been involved in a pioneering project with the Royal Society of Arts. The aim of this project is focused around how drama can be used to capture pupils' imagination and improve their literacy, language & storytelling abilities.

As part of this project a short 4 minute film is being produced, which will be used to showcase the process. This video will be available to view on RSA's website and used for evaluation purposes by Billesley Primary School and the founders of the project, Paul Hamlyn Foundation.

A filmmaker will be coming into school to film the drama techniques being used by the teachers and pupils on Thursday 14 June.

Please fill in and hand in the consent form and return to the office so that your child may take part. Thank you.
