1J	Afia C	Afia is working super hard on her home learning challenges each day. Each morning there is always new completed challenges. She is producing amazing work and applies herself to the range of challenges set. Keep it up Afia!

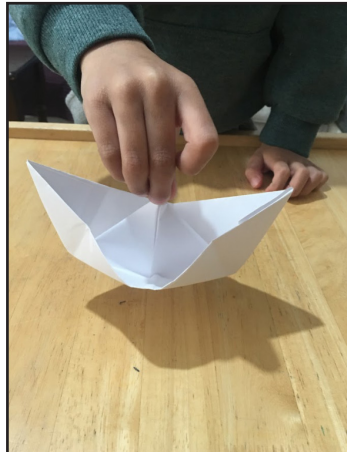

AC lovely recount about a relaxing day.

AC's word problems.

1M	Asir Y	Asir has been wowing all of the Year 1 teachers with all of the brilliant work that he has been completing at home. We loved looking at photos of his science experiment, where he made a boat and predicted how many pennies it would hold. Well done Asir.
----	--------	--

1G	Maleka E	Maleka showed her amazing science skills this week when we did our weekly science challenge. She made a boat and then tested how many coins the boat could carry before sinking. Fantastic work Maleka!

4S	Charanjot G	Charanjot, I have been so pleased to see you actively engaging with Google Classroom over the last couple of weeks! I can tell that you are trying really hard and taking your learning seriously even through this strange time! I especially enjoyed your report writing you impressed me as well as Mrs. Miller and Miss Bisseker! Keep it up!

Remember the 5 ws
 THE TERRIFYING, FURIOUS FLOOD
 Shortly before 7pm yesterday rain unexpectedly started to fall it was that bad that the villagers didn't even believe the rain. about an hour later the rain raised up slightly first we thought it was normal. A young lady who experienced it reported "I was just about to take a nap then I heard heavy rain pouring on my roof. I tried to simply ignore it but it was too distracting as time went past water started to come in my house through the gap in my door. I was terrified!" Well according to my sheet there is no deaths so far. The village name was New York and it is not usual to have a flood in New York.

4B	Lucy T	Lucy has worked really hard with her online learning. She is submitting work regularly, clearly trying as hard as she does at school. I particularly enjoyed seeing her art work which she shared with me! It really made me smile. Well done Lucy, keep up all the hard work.

What Day Is It?
 We're in isolation at home,
 Where I sometimes feel alone.
 Mum is trying to work,
 And boredom lurks.
 School is closed,
 Online learning rules,
 I'm trying to have fun,
 With my mum.
 The days roll into one,
 Trying to keep busy,
 Watching TV in my pit,
 What day is it?

5G	Kaine L	Kaine has been getting on really well with all his work at home, but his letter written to a care-home resident really brought a smile to my face and showed me what a kind and caring young man he is. Well done Kaine!

Dear Resident,

My name is kaine and I'm from billesley school and I am 10 years old. I am writing because I know you cannot have visitors at this time, so I wanted to keep you company.

Some of my hobbies are playing football, playing video games and playing with my friends. I have two dogs, Frank and Fifi. My opinion of lockdown isn't that bad because I get to play more and get up whenever I want and go to bed a bit later, but I do miss seeing my friends at school.

I am in year 5 at school and my favourite subject is PE and my least favourite lesson is guided reading as it is not as fun. We get to go outside in PE and be active. What I enjoy most about school is seeing my friends and playing with them.

It has been really warm lately and it seems really weird now because you barely even see one person out on the street, it is very quiet, it's like everywhere is abandoned and lifeless. Its quite annoying because it is really warm and we can't go out to enjoy the weather, I bet when this is all over it will rain, which would be typical.

As I have been stuck at home, I have been doing my homework, playing on my computer and playing in my garden as the weather has been good. I have also been playing with my toys with my brother who is 6 years old.

Thank you for reading my letter, I hope it made you smile. Keep safe and well and then hopefully before you know it, you will be able to see your family again and you can give them a big cuddle.

Goodbye and take care
Kaine.

5L	Rahmath H M	Rahmath produced a beautiful rainbow for our creative challenge which really brought a smile to my face with the fabulous colours. Well done.

5B	Savannah C	Savannah has been working extremely hard on her google classroom, and I have been so impressed with the effort she has put in! Her creative challenges, especially her NHS poster, was absolutely fabulous! Please keep it up Savannah, I am so proud!

Hello my name is Savannah and I live in Birmingham. I live with my mother and father with 5 animals. Mia the oldest and most lively dog. Poorsha the... I would say the chubby dog. And Bruce the most cutest puppy. My mother adopted him. Also I have budgie called Bell and she's yellow and is the cuttiest funniest little thing in the house. But my other budgie died. He was called blue and he was very funny. And we've got a hamster called beauty. She doesn't come out that much but we give her all sorts of fruits. And last but definitely not least...my rabbit! Well thumper we got from our friends and I got him for my 10th birthday. And one more thing... He thinks he is a Dog. He's crazy!

I really hope that you are safe at home during the Corona virus! My life with the corona is not very good. At first it was very nice to get away from school, but then it just got annoying spending time with all my animals and pearnts. I'm very bored, stuck with my family and miss my friends. Especially I miss my nan. I video call her every night. Just wishing I could see her. But then things got better because on Easter my mom and dad got me 3 giant eggs each! I mean I'm still finishing the first one.

OK enough of my silly talking, I'm sorry I get carried away. Anyway, since we're all alone and bored I'm going to cheer you up! With some... urrr... Ah! Jokes. OK your first joke.

- . What did the Big flower say to the little flower? Hi bud!
- . Why are fish so smart? Because they live in schools!
- . Knock knock. Who's there. Scold. Scold who? Scold outside let me in!
- . Why did the pony get sent to his room? He wouldn't stop horsing around!

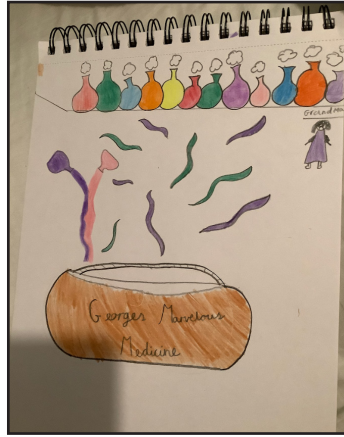

I hope my letter has cheered you up stay happy and strong! Never feel sad

From Savannah connolly. 😊

Task 11: Copy out two or three sentences from a book that you really like. Explain why you like them.

I chose to try Every single day.

I chose this sentence because it inspires me to try even more.

In the middle of difficulty lies opportunity.

I really like this sentence because it reminds me to keep on trying.

BILLESLEY Primary School INSPIRE our children to succeed CREATE excitement for learning ACHIEVE EXCELLENCE

Task 9: Write a book review persuading someone you know to read a book you like!

My Awesome guide to getting good at stuff is a really good book to read because it tells you how to achieve things.

I will rate this book out of 5 which is going to be 5 out of 5.

So please read this book because it is amazing.

6S	Saara S	Saara's work on classroom has been consistently stunning! Her art and history projects were so detailed and she had clearly put in a lot of effort! Well done Saara - you are a superstar!

For my artwork, I decided to do a drawing and the way I tried to make some of it seem like Alberto Giacometti is by making the animals in his style of art. The animals are mythical animals but they are different to the original because I made them thinner, since most of his artwork was thin and unique for example the Man Pointing sculpture and many others. The animal in the middle is a male deer with 8 legs and its antlers are the heads of eagles.

Write a diary entry as the person you have chosen

3rd August 1915

Dear Diary,

I have been incarcerated. I'm trapped behind bars. A Belgian spy discovered the secret tunnel that I smuggled the soldiers through and alerted authorities. I was doing all this for a good cause though. I was kept in seclusion and interrogated by German officials but I chose not to lie. The news has been spread far and fast about my arrest already and now there is an international outcry, urging for me to be released from prison. I am thankful to those who are pleading for me to be liberated but I did do something I wasn't supposed to.

When World War I broke out, I believed that it was my duty to head back to Brussels and help wounded soldiers regardless of what side they were fighting on. The German forces had advanced to Belgium though so I needed to come up with a plan to ensure that soldiers could get suitable nursing where it was safe. That was why I was secretly sending soldiers to Holland. If that spy didn't find out about the tunnel underneath the hospital, my plan might have been successful and I would not have been confined to prison.

I hope I don't get sentenced to death. I hope that the people's cries don't go unheard. I hope that I can see my family again soon. I want to get back to my usual life as quick as possible. These words may be the last words I write so I would like to say that I love my family and I would like no hatred or bitterness towards anyone. If I do get executed, I would like everyone to know how grateful I am for their everlasting appreciation for my work. I think I should say goodbye now.

Edith
