2T	Danayt A	Danayt continues to impress all the teachers in year 2 with her hard work on Google Classroom. She also produced a great character description using some fantastic adjectives, conjunctions and the contraction 'don't'. Well done Danayt and keep up the hard work.

Write your character description in the box.
Don't forget to use your success criteria to help you.

My creature is blue. He is scary and he camouflages when he sees rabbits because he wants to eat them. The rabbits don't suspect a thing. He has shiny eyes and rosy cheeks.

2H	Esey A	Esey, what a star! Esey logs onto Google Classroom every single day and always tries his best. This week we are so impressed with his reading. Esey used his phonics and demonstrated great retrieval skills. He also logs onto Bug Club every week to read. Well done Esey, we are very proud of you!

Here are some independent questions to answer:

Gangsta Granny

1

Cabbage Water

"But Granny is sooooo boring," said Ben. It was a cold Friday evening in November, and as usual he was slumped in the back of his mum and dad's car. Once again he was on his way to stay the night at his dreaded granny's house. "All old people are."

"Don't talk about your granny like that," said Dad weakly, his fat stomach pushed up against the steering wheel of the family's little brown car. "I hate spending time with her," protested Ben. "Her TV doesn't work, all she wants to do is play Scrabble and the stinks of cabbage!"

In fairness to the boy she does stink of cabbage," agreed Mum, as she applied some last minute lip-liner.

"You're not helping, wife," muttered Dad. "At worst my mother has a very slight odour of boiled vegetables."

"Can't I come with you?" pleaded Ben. "I love ball-whatsit dancing," he lied.

"It's called ballroom dancing," corrected Dad. "And you don't love it. You said, and I quote, 'I would rather eat my own bogeys than watch that rubbish!'"

Now, Ben's mum and dad loved ballroom dancing. Sometimes Ben thought they loved it more than they loved him. There was a TV show on Saturday evenings that Mum and Dad never missed called Strictly Stars Dancing, where celebrities would be paired with professional ballroom dancers.

Why doesn't Ben want to go to Granny's house?

Because all she does is play scrabble and she smells of boiled vegetables

What adverb is used to describe how Dad speaks?

Weakly

What does this word suggest about Dad?

That he is not very strong

4B	Fayza J	Fayza has 100% online engagement every week and completes the work to the best of her ability. Well done for making me proud even from home!
----	---------	--

"Because prancing around like that is stupid," said Ben.

Mum whimpered a little, and reached for a tissue.

"You're upsetting your mother. Now just be quiet please. Ben, there's a road how?" replied stereo. Inevitably, a Strictly CD was playing, 50 Golden Greats from the Hit TV Show was emblazoned on the cover. Ben hated the CD, not least because he had heard it a million times. In fact, he had heard it so many times it was like torture.

Ben's mum worked at the local nail salon, 'Gail's Nails'. Because there weren't many customers, Mum and the other lady who worked there (unsurprisingly called Gail) spent most days doing each other's nails. Buffing, cleaning, trimming, moisturising, coating, sealing, polishing, filing, lacquering, extending and painting. They were doing things to each other's nails all day long (unless Flavio Flavioli was on daytime TV). That meant Mum would

How is Ben upsetting his mother?

He is talking bad about his grandma and ballroom dancing.

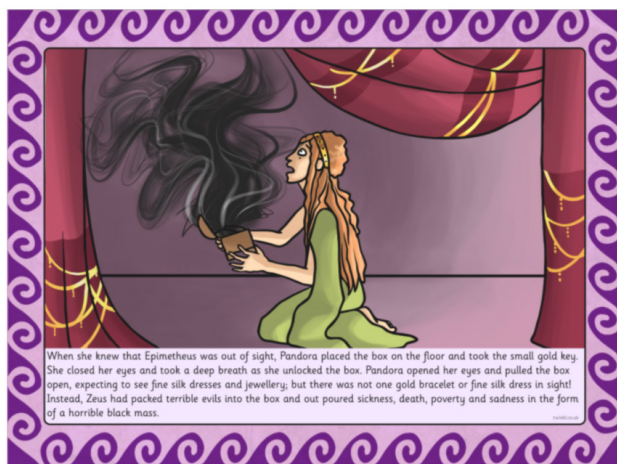

Why does Ben describe listening to the CD as torture?

Because its ballroom dancing and he hates it he even quoted that he would rather eat his bogies than listen to that.

4M	Mouheeb M	Mouheeb has made an excellent effort to improve on Google Classroom in the last few weeks. He has been completing all his assignments and sharing them with Mrs. Miller! Well done and keep it up!

5G	Tenson Z	Tenson really made me smile this week with his positivity and imagination in his grammar work, creating a rather far fetched story using determiners!

Determiners are words that come before a noun. They introduce the noun and give the reader important information about it (like how many of them there are or who it belongs to).

my

a

king

Choose one of these determiners and use it in a sentence.

My cat is died because he jumped on my pikachu plushie and jumped out of the window ,my pikachu is fine but the cat died .so when i found a cat on the sidewalk decided adopt it but it turned out to be the kings so he paid me 100 dollars for his cat back .
I did all happy face

5L	Ana C	Ana always works extremely hard on the Google Classroom, but she especially impressed me this week with her solid understanding of determiners in her grammar work.
----	-------	---

Challenge Zone

Underline the determiner.

Write a sentence linked to each picture which uses a determiner. Underline the determiner.

detective

The detective found some mysterious footprints.

magnifying glass

A magnifying glass is useful when you want to look at something closely.

fingerprints

This fingerprint belongs to the queen.

criminal

The most wanted criminal has gotten away with another robbery.

Can you make your sentences link together in a (very) short story?

5B	Rueben S	Rueben really impressed us with his resilience this week in his English work when he tried hard to improve his writing, creating an excellent letter to the three little pigs!
----	----------	--

Dear three little pigs,

I'm writing this letter to apologise for blowing down your house truly am so sorry little pigs. I feel terrible for what I did when you were all resting. I'm so sorry

If I buy you enough new bricks to build your new homes I will be able to buy you enough new bricks to build your new homes

I know I may look and act like a bad wolf however on the inside I'm a friendly wolf just looking for some new friends. I am not a bad wolf

I know now this will never ever occur again I have decided to turn vegetarian.

I really hope you can forgive me for my hungry actions and after reading this sincere apology you accept my offer we can be best of friends.

Lots of love your new friend,

The big, veggie wolf.

6C	Amna A A	Amna has worked hard this week on the Google Classroom and has improved her engagement. Her transition work on solving friendship problems was very thoughtful and she tried hard to think carefully and take a considered approach. Well done!

What is Eli's problem?

Eli is making new friends and he doesn't know who to spend time with.

How do you think he feels?

Stressed because he wants to give all his friends time.

What would you do now if you were Eli?

I would tell both friends LETS hang out together and do something we all will like.

What is Shanice's problem?

Shes being bullied

How do you think she feels?

Shes upset and worried

What would you do now if you were Shanice?

I wouldn't listen to the bully and I would tell a trusted adult and would not keep it inside of me.

6B	Fatemah M	We have noticed a massive improvement in Fatemah's engagement and attitude with her online learning this week. She showed amazing determination and perseverance with her Science work by handing it back in 3 times to make sure the work was her absolute best. We are proud of you Fatemah - keep it up!

Task 2

I predict that the bread kept in the freezer will have no mould because the freezer is cold, bacteria likes to grow in warm conditions

I predict that the bread kept in the cupboard will grow mould faster than the bread that is in the freezer because bacteria likes to grow in a dark and warm place

Write your predictions into the boxes...

predict

You do

Bread with 5 drops of water in the bag.	Bread with no water in the bag.
Appearance after 1 week	Appearance after 1 week

Conclusion: the bread with 5 drops of water has more mould than the bread that doesn't have water this is because bacteria likes damp places. The variable here the amount of water.

6S	Muhammad Z	Zayan has found it quite difficult to get into a good routine online but this week Zayan has submitted every assignment. Well done!

You do

Bread with 5 drops of water in the bag.	Bread with no water in the bag.
Appearance after 1 week	Appearance after 1 week

Conclusion: The bread with 5 drops of water has more mould than the bread with no water. I conclude that mould grows in damp places.

Practise

Q3 Children were asked to choose their favourite colour

The results were put into a table.

Holly says that more than $\frac{1}{4}$ of the children preferred blue.

2 marks

Favourite colour	Number of children
Pink	12
Blue	10
Red	11
Green	4
Yellow	2
Other	1

Is Holly correct? Explain how you know.

NO because if you add them in total you get 40 children and 10 children favourite colour was blue. 10 is a quarter of 40 not more than a quarter of 40.

Brain Teaser

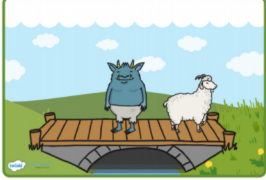

Each colour is a different digit

ENGAGEMENT PRIZE DRAW

The 'Engagement Prize draw' has been designed to maintain and improve the engagement of children working at home on various learning platforms, but mainly Google Classroom.

Each week teachers nominate children to enter the prize draw. Names are then picked at random. Teachers will be focussing on children who show consistent, daily, high-quality work and only children who demonstrate this commitment and engagement will be considered.

There are also prizes for the same commitment to Bug club, being active and Art and Creative activities, all of which are posted on Google Classroom.
