RF	Isabella F	Isabella has worked exceptionally hard this week with her online learning. She shows enthusiasm for every single activity and has particularly improved in her writing! She has written some brilliant labels and captions this week and created a wonderful family tree. Well done, Isabella. We are very proud of you!

RL	Haider I	Haider has been working consistently hard on his online learning this week. He impressed his teachers when thinking of a prediction for this week's science experiment on reactions and was able to draw and discuss his observations of the experiment in detail. Haider attends our Class Meets on a daily basis with a huge smile and is always ready to engage with his learning. Keep up the good work, Haider!

RM	Manav L G	Manav is a superstar. He always tries his best at every activity that is set. Manav has been trying really hard with his letter formation, which is getting better and better every day. We are all so proud of Manav for persevering. He made some fantastic daily routine cards with his Mum using his writing skills. Manav attends out Class Meets everyday, with a positive attitude to start his learning for the day. Keep up the great work, Manav.

1J	Amtul Q D	Daania has worked extra hard this week to take part in lots of google classroom lessons and google meets. She has even enjoyed taking part in our bug club challenges, sharing fantastic drawings of the characters in the book. Keep it up, Daania!

1M	Manas S	Manas always works so hard in our google classroom. He is dedicated to completing each lesson to the best of his ability, even looking for new ways to challenge himself each day. Look at these fantastic sentences that Manas wrote after a phonics lesson this week. Keep it up, Manas, we are very proud.

1P	Eden R	Eden works hard every day in our google classroom, trying hard to complete each lesson. He particularly impressed his teachers this week by reflecting on what makes a good friend in our P4C lesson. Well done, Eden!

3C	Ruby B	Ruby has been amazing on Google Classroom. She engages with every lesson, as well as joining our Class Meets twice a day. She makes me smile all the time - especially when she figures out my riddles! Ruby has been dividing 2-digit numbers by 1-digit numbers this week and she has absolutely smashed it! Well done, Ruby. It is really wonderful to see you so engaged and learning every day. Keep it up!

Have a go at using the tens and ones to divide. Remember to exchange!

3.  $45 \div 3 = 15$

4.  $52 \div 4 = 13$

3M	Awaid A	Awaid is an absolute superstar on our Google Classroom. He always completes every bit of work and enthusiastically joins in with our Meets twice a day, even dressing up for occasion sometimes! He tells us that he would much prefer to be in school, and we agree, but being at home hasn't stopped him putting in 100% effort and always trying to make his work better.

The leaves take in sunlight and carbon dioxide. The water in the stem is taken to the leaves. The leaves make food to help the plant grow. This is called photosynthesis.

Q: What do you think makes a good friend?

A: listening to everyone so they listen to you.

Q: Are good friends important?

A: very important they make you not bored.

Q: Do you think friends or family are more important?

A: yes because they take care of you.

3O	Noor F A	Noor has found some of the work we've set quite tricky, but she has never given up! We are very proud of the way she tries hard and lets us know when she needs some help. She always comes back to make her corrections, which means she is always learning and growing in confidence. We loved that she wanted to be Queen of the Jungle after reading a book based in a zoo! She also considered the questions in her geography lesson carefully and understood the difference between settlement types.
----	----------	---

If you were a zoo animal which would you choose to be and why?

A lion because it is a king of the jungle and I can be the queen hamlet      village      town      city

Complete these sentences with a settlement type.

If you wanted to live in a really small area with not many other houses you would choose to settle in a... hamlet

If you wanted to live in a busy place with lots to do you would choose to settle in a... City

5M	Ismaeel Y	Ismaeel is a very thoughtful, caring boy, who this week has really considered the thoughts of others in our work on evacuation. Well done, Ismaeel, keep up the hard work.

Complete the thought bubbles to show what these people could have been thinking.

I want to see my parents

Hurry up everybody hurry up!

How long till we get everybody on the train?

Why is there a war? what's going on?

Click the thought bubble once and just start typing.

5C	Tobias TLT	Tobias works very hard on the Google Classroom, completing every task to a high standard. He has also been joining our class meets and enjoys sharing his ideas. Well done, Tobias, we are very proud of you.

Dear Three Bears, I am Goldilocks and I am apologizing for what I did to you three bears.

I am apologizing for breaking a chair, eating your porridge and sleeping in your bed. I feel sorry, awful and guilty.

I can imagine how you probably feel after what I did: sad, angry and furious. → I ended up doing this because I was in a difficult situation, when I was lost in the thick forest.

5S	Batool M	Batool has had a great week. She has attended all of her class meets with a smile on her face. She worked well with her mum writing a letter in the role of Goldilocks. Batool always completes her work in every subject. Keep up this amazing attitude!
----	----------	---

Dear Three Bear

I write this letter for you, to tell you why I broke into your house, without permission.

First, I'm very very sorry. I want to tell you the reasons for this work. When I walk at the woods the night come. At this time, I was hungry and it was very cold. So I eat the food and sleep in your bed.

Really I'm very upset. I'm not bad girl. If you know me, you can see how I lovely. How I kindly. How I nice. I want to say sorry with all languages but it is not enough.

About your chire. I broke unintentionally. So shy of you. It was very small and I'm bigger than you. So it's broken. Then I set to bed, I fell asleep.

When I wake up I ask myself, what I do? What happened?

I Promise you, I will correct my mistake. I will attend to you new chair and too much food.

I hope your forgiveness because I was compelled.

From Goldilocks

6B	Saaliha Q	Marni is a superstar on our Meets and on our Classroom. She produces high quality work that she has clearly put a lot of effort into. I particularly enjoy reading her writing and loved the science experiment that she planned this week. Well done, Marni!

You do

What will I do?
I will use slices of bread, that are practically the same, and put them in them in zip-lock bag. I will put the bags in different locations- one in a cold environment (maybe a freezer) and one in a hot environment (near a heater). I will check in them both daily to see which zip-lock bag has protected the bread in the locations with different temperatures.

Which variable will I change?
• The locations

Which variables will I control? (keep the same)

- The same brand of bread
- The same thing that the bread is put in
- The same kind of zip-lock bag
- The same amount of slices of bread
- The same amount of time put in the locations

What will I observe or measure?
• The amount of mould and harmful bacteria on the pieces of bread

6HB	Baria M	What an amazing week Baria has had! I am super impressed with her hard work and dedication to the work on the google classroom. All the amazing work she does always shows how much time and care she takes with it - adding lots of detail to her answers. Keep it up, Baria.

Question 1

When he first set foot on the moon Neil Armstrong was thirty-eight years old. He was a quiet ENGINEER and pilot who once described himself as a 'nerd'.

Neil's step was one of the most important and extraordinary in human history. With one footstep he showed that humanity's voyages of discovery could continue out into space.

ENGINEER: someone who designs and makes machinery.

Look at the small text box in the corner

Why do you think the author has chosen to include this in the text??

Use the text to explain your answer.

The Author has included the text box in the corner to tell the readers what the word Engineer means since it was in the text above and might be a difficult word to understand the meaning of and read so incase they put the definition in the corner and write the word in bold so they can see where to look for the definition.

6S	Adam M	It has been so lovely to see Adam on our Classroom this week! He has also started coming to his class Meets and we have loved seeing him. Well done for all your hard work, Adam - we had missed you!

Dialogue Tags

A dialogue tag describes how something is spoken and who this is spoken by. Your task is to come up with a word bank of 10 different verbs to show how something is being said.

E.g. Shouted, spoke

shouting	shrieked	begged
spoke	groaned	sneered
answered	bellowed	grumbled wailed
