R3	Umar A	Umar has been working incredibly hard in Reception - which has resulted in progress across the curriculum - particularly with his reading. Be very proud of yourself Umar! You did it!	Holly Q
1A	Bethany W	Bethany is a little super star! If you ever need a helping hand around your classroom, Bethany is the girl to go to! She is helpful, kind and thinks about other people all the time. Bethany has impressed me this week because of her fabulous writing in English. Her work was detailed, she was able to tick off all her success criteria and best of all, it was written in beautifully neat cursive script. Well done Bethany. I am so proud of you.	Arvin M
1Q	Alesha K	Alesha is someone who ALWAYS does the right thing. You can trust her to sit sensibly on the carpet to listen, as well as working hard at her table. She has also included lots of fantastic ideas in her story writing this week. Alesha has also been one of the first to finish in maths every day this week! Well done Alesha!	Eemaan W B
1S	Daisy-Mae J	Daisy is a joy to teach in 1S. Everyday Daisy walks into school with a huge smile on her face, sensibly puts her book bag and coat away and sits on the carpet ready to learn. She is becoming more confident when answering questions on the carpet and tries her hardest when working independently in all subjects. Not only this, but Daisy has made a huge improvement in her handwriting this year and now uses beautiful cursive script. Well done Daisy!	Hassan M
2C	Shanika C N	This week Shanika has really impressed me in English. She is listening hard and wanting to do her best, which is showing in the working she has produced. She is now writing work full of adjectives, adverbs and conjunctions. Keep it up Shanika.	Leanna Y
