The Birmingham Marathon Sunday 15 October

Year 2 teacher David Cheshire will be joining this incredible event and will be running the marathon. Mrs Keogh's daughter Becky and her friend Lucy Hill will also be joining the fun and will be running the half marathon.

They have all been training really hard and are eager to raise as much money as possible for the Red Tree Fund - for the benefit of all our children at Billesley Primary School. You can donate money at our school office or see the school web site for our Just Giving page link.
