

Spellings in context:

Spelling Rule 'ff' + CEW	Spelling Rule 'll' + CEW	Spelling Rule 'ss' + CEW	Spelling Rule 'zz' + CEW
We watched the train puff away.            She gave a loud sniff of disapproval.            All of the staff were so proud of him.            Her shirt cuff was stained from dinner.            They lived on top of a cliff.            I've got some sticky stuff on my shoe.  The cat sat on the mat.  A little girl knocked on the door.  Do you like my new hair?            I want to tell you something.	She lived on top of a great, big hill.            His skull was cracked in two places.            Can we still go to the park?            The farmer to his grain to the mill.  Will you look at my work?            I did extremely well in my test.  Today we went to the park.            Beware of the dog!            She said, 'Are we there yet?'            He always says that!	Mum always gives me a kiss before bed.            The boss is always in early.            I always mess with my hair.            Suddenly I heard a loud hiss.            Do you miss me?            Always remember to floss your teeth.            You are amazing!            The children were good yesterday.            It was night.  Is it raining?	I like jazz music.            There was a buzz in the crowd.            The liquid started to fizz.            He is a whizz at football.            Her hair was in a frizz.            He was born with black fuzz on his head.  His favourite colour is red.            Every child has a bike.  I went to the shop with my parents.  You are the best!

Spelling Rule 'ck' + CEW	Spelling Rule 'nk' + CEW	Spelling Rule 'tch' + CEW	Spelling Rule 've' + CEW
I went back home.            We love to rock and roll.            The duck swims around the pond.            I love to play stuck in the mud.            The egg started to crack.            The clock kept ticking.  Your homework is very important.  They went to the beach every week.            I want to be a hero.  He stomped up to his room.	The paper was blank.            I need a nice, cold drink.            Your shoes stink.            We went to the local bank.            Her tutu was pink and fluffy.            We bought a huge fish tank.            Will you wait for me?  She really wants a new book.  We love playing football.            I said no.	I bought my dad a new watch.            Can you catch the ball?            The witch had a green, pointy nose.            My rabbit lives in a wooden hutch.            We went to play a tennis match.            I love to cook in the kitchen.            Where do you want to go?            I did my homework, so I could play.            I came by bus.  My parents are the best.	Have you seen the weather?            I want to give you a present.            We live down the road.            I was cold, so I sat by the stove.            My bedroom is above the kitchen.            Have you seen my baseball glove?            He was here last night.            She played over there.  Where are you going?            I love you.